We are permitted access to these U.S. applications because they have been relied on as priority documents in international applications that have been published under the PCT. We are enclosing copies of the first page of each of these international PCT publications.

We understand that a fee of 35 Swiss Francs will be charged for each application copied and sent to us. We also understand that payment of the fees should not accompany this request, but we will instead receive an invoice for the total fees due. Please send the copies by express mail or DHL courier, and add any additional fees for that service to the invoice.
